9 DONALD DEE MARTIN,

10 Petitioner,

11 vs.

12 RENEE BAKER, et al.,

13 Respondents.

Case No. 3:13-cv-00306-RCJ-WGC

ORDER

15 Petitioner has paid the filing fee. The court has reviewed the petition for a writ of habeas
16 corpus pursuant to Rule 4 of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases in the United States District
17 Courts. Petitioner needs to show cause why the court should not dismiss this action as untimely.

18 Congress has limited the time in which a person can petition for a writ of habeas corpus
19 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254:

20 A 1-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a
21 person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run 22 from the latest of—

23 (A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the 24 expiration of the time for seeking such review;

25 (B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in 26 violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such State action;

27 (C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the 28 Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or

29 (D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

30 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(1). If the judgment is appealed, then it becomes final when the Supreme Court
31 of the United States denies a petition for a writ of certiorari or when the time to petition for a writ of

1 certiorari expires. Jimenez v. Quarterman, 555 U.S. 113, 119-20 (2009). See also Sup. Ct. R.
 2 13(1). Any time spent pursuing a properly filed application for state post-conviction review or other
 3 collateral review does not count toward this one-year limitation period. 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(2).
 4 The period of limitation resumes when the post-conviction judgment becomes final upon issuance
 5 of the remittitur. Jefferson v. Budge, 419 F.3d 1013, 1015 n.2 (9th Cir. 2005). An untimely state
 6 post-conviction petition is not “properly filed” and does not toll the period of limitation. Pace v.
 7 DiGuglielmo, 544 U.S. 408, 417 (2005). Section 2244(d) is subject to equitable tolling. Holland v.
 8 Florida, 560 U.S. 631, 130 S. Ct. 2549, 2560 (2010). “[A] ‘petitioner’ is ‘entitled to equitable 9 tolling’ only if he shows ‘(1) that he has been pursuing his rights diligently, and (2) that some 10 extraordinary circumstance stood in his way’ and prevented timely filing.” Id. at 2562 (quoting 11 Pace, 544 U.S. at 418). The court can raise the issue of timeliness on its own motion. Day v.
 12 McDonough, 547 U.S. 198, 209 (2006); Herbst v. Cook, 260 F.3d 1039, 1043 (9th Cir. 2001).

13 The court takes judicial notice of the dockets of the Nevada Supreme Court in Martin v.
 14 State, No. 51244,¹ Martin v. State, No. 58437,² and Martin v. Baker, 61206.³ Petitioner was 15 convicted in state district court of one count each of conspiracy to commit robbery, burglary while 16 in possession of a firearm, first-degree kidnaping with the use of a deadly weapon, battery with 17 intent to commit a crime, robbery with the use of a deadly weapon, and possession of a firearm by 18 an ex-felon. Petitioner appealed. The Nevada Supreme Court affirmed on September 3, 2009. The 19 time to petition the Supreme Court of the United States for a writ of certiorari expired on, and the 20 one-year federal period of limitation began after, December 2, 2009.

1 Two hundred ninety-six (296) days later, on September 24, 2010, petitioner filed his first
2 state habeas corpus petition. The state district court denied the petition. Petitioner appealed. The 3 Nevada Supreme Court affirmed on October 5, 2011. Remittitur issued on November 1, 2011.

4 Petitioner then filed a second state habeas corpus petition on November 16, 2011. The state
5 district court dismissed the petition because it was untimely pursuant to Nev. Rev. Stat. § 34.726(1)
6 and successive pursuant to Nev. Rev. Stat. § 34.810. Petitioner appealed. The Nevada Supreme 7 Court affirmed for the same reasons on April 10, 2013. Remittitur issued on May 9, 2013. Because
8 the Nevada Supreme Court determined that the second state petition was untimely, it was ineligible
9 to toll the federal period of limitation. Pace, 544 U.S. at 417.

10 Five hundred eighty-one (581) days after the issuance of the remittitur in the first state
11 habeas corpus proceedings, petitioner mailed his federal habeas corpus petition to this court on June 12 4, 2013.

13 On its face, the petition is untimely. A total of eight hundred seventy-seven (877) non-tolled
14 days have passed between the finality of petitioner's judgment of conviction and the commencement
15 of this action. Petitioner needs to show cause why the court should not dismiss this action as 16 untimely.

17 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the clerk of the court file the petition for a writ of 18 habeas corpus.

19 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that petitioner shall have thirty (30) days from the date of entry
20 of this order to show cause why the court should not dismiss this action as untimely. Failure to 21 comply with this order will result in the dismissal of this action.

22 Dated this 4th day of December, 2013.
